

Lynn Hamrick

July 27, 1944 - July 27, 2007

Lynn Hamrick, 63, of Russell, died Friday, July 27, 2007. He was born in Bald Knob January 20, 1944 a son of the late Epter and Emily Bazzill Hamrick.

Lynn had worked in pipeline construction for many years and had performed about every job there was. Through the years his work took him to 62 foreign lands and he had traveled nearly all 50 states; however his heart was always in Bald Knob. Lynn was an avid fisherman and loved a good card game.

He is survived by his wife, Ramona Hamrick; sons, Michael Hamrick (Sue) of Bradford; Jeff Hamrick of Decatur, Alabama and Kevin Smith of Russell; a sister, Sue McClain (Tommy) of Benton and a grandson, Corbin Kirk Hamrick who was the apple of his eye. Also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and many friends. He was preceded in death by a sister, Charlene Eden.

Visitation: 6-8 p.m. Monday. Services: 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 31, 2007 at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will be in Carter Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob- Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

“ *Ramona, Sue, Terri and Todd,
I was sorry to hear about Lynn. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.*

February 10, 2016 at 06:20 PM

“ Sue, so sorry about Lynn, I remember how funny he was and always reminded me of your Daddy. Ramona, so sorry for your loss, Peace be with ya'll and God Bless. Glenda

July 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM