“ Memories - there are far to many to put into words - the main thing is that I loved him and I always know that he loved me. Anyone that knew him will understand what I mean when I say that he was "soooooo full of it"! Full of love, caring, giving, , mischief and he was just down right ornery! The last time I saw him in the nursing home, we were looking for the dining room where him and Aunt Christine where but about half way down the hall here comes Uncle Lynn with his walker and when he saw my sister, Carol and I, he started dancing (with his walker) down the hall, kicking his feet out to the side and turning circles. He always was having fun, no matter what the situation was. He is now in a far better place and I bet he is picking at my Grandmother Porter and having a big time and I am sure that Mary Lynn was waiting at the gates of heaven to meet him (she always was her Daddy's Girl)! He is gone from this old world but he will always be near and dear to my heart..

“ Lynn surely was a great ambassador for life as he seemed to never tire and was always upbeat. I feel he enjoyed life to the fullest and am honored to have known him. Johnny Hodges

“ I don't know that anyone could put into words what Uncle Lynn was and meant to people better than Marsha did. He was always one of my favorite people. One of the things I remember the most is always telling us how much younger he was, due to only having a birthday every 4 years. Even though we were always a distance away, I felt as close to them as my own family. We are sure he is in a much better place, and will miss him greatly.
