Tribute Wall

“ I knew this family back in the mid-sixties and spent quite a few nights in their home. Helen and I were friends, she as a matter of fact dated my cousin Jimmy Johnson a few times. We used to spend some time in the old Pleasant Plains Cafe, when Mrs. Haney had it.

The family lived in a house behind the post office and always made me feel welcome when I visited. Mrs. McDougal was always gracious and kind. I'm very sorry for your loss, sadly this generation is soon to be a lost era, and the upcoming generations lack the same qualities that these folks possessed. You were truly blessed to have had her for 80 years.

Sincerely,

Pat Johnson Huggins
