“ My uncle Mack : I remember when you graduated from HS in an auditorium because i was sitting on someone's lap at the age of 4 or 5. I remember the many times you took me fishing on storm creek. I remember when you got stuck in the mud driving your two tone green ford around Craighead Lake one rainy Sunday morning ; we almost had to get a tow truck that day but there were no phones to call anyone to get help. I remember when you and Aunt Louise lived in barracks close to an air field used in WW2. I remember Diane standing up in her baby bed while I was there to visit. Where did this little girl come from i wondered to myself . I remember the many times we ate fried fish that you and uncle Elmo caught and later making ice cream in grandmothers back yard. I remember watching football games with you and everybody in our family hoping to see Arkansas beat OLE MISS. I remember the many Christmases,Thanksgivings and over eating the food that the women folk cooked for us.

As i write about these remembrances i can't help crying because the relatives i shared these moments are all gone and I miss them and the joy we had as a family uncle Mack.

Love to all my relatives,

terry

“ I always remember going to Uncle Mack's shop with my dad. We would sit and drink tea and talk about cars. What a relaxing time that was, that I still think about even today. I'm sorry I can't be there to pay my respects but I will always have fond memories of times spent with you. Rest in Peace.
