“ *Melissa and Scotty,
I am so very sorry about your sweet little macy. For some reason god needed her more. My heart honestly hurts and breaks for yall. I know that words cant take away the pain but I honestly wish I could take it away for you. Time will help to heal but the love you had for her will always be there and you will have another angel to watch over you. You know if there is anything that you need please dont hesitate to ask. I will keep yall in my thoughts and prayers.*
