“ Dear Family,

I have very fond memories of Mae and Royall. I am the granddaughter of Enos and Lois Hawkins and she would visit them every time she came to Forest. As a child she invited me to spend the night at C.H and Margaret Whites home, which at that time I thought was the grandest thing. Our family loved her homemade coconut cakes and looked forward to them during Christmas. Mae was a generous and kind lady and heaven has a new angel. She has left behind a legacy of memories with everyone she touched. May God Bless and keep you close during this time.
