

Margaret Dulaney

November 11, 1924 - February 9, 2012

Nell Dulaney, born November 11, 1924, went home to be with the Lord, Thursday, February 9, 2012 in her home of 48 years in the Olive Branch community. She was preceded in death by her father, Willard Reaper and her mother, Alieene Martin Reaper; 2 brothers, Prince Reaper and Bobby Reaper both of the Olive Branch community; a sister, Avaleen Pate of Searcy; her husband, Troy Dulaney who she spent 50 years with.

She is survived by a son, Dennis Dulaney and wife Judy of the Olive Branch community; 2 granddaughters, Dana Wilf of Pleasant Plains and Deidre Johnson of the Olive Branch community; 4 great-grandchildren, Laken Power and Landen Wilf and Destiny and Brady Johnson; numerous nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Nell was born and raised in the Olive Branch community. She was a member of the Mt. Olive Church of God where she served the Lord faithfully. Her favorite hobby was crocheting. She made baby blankets, doilies, table clothes and pot holders for most of White County. She always loved being outdoors and enjoyed riding her ranger through the woods and on the creek.

Visitation will be on Saturday from 6-8 p.m. at Powell Funeral Home.

Graveside services will be conducted on Sunday, February 12, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Olive Branch Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

Tribute Wall

PW

“ So many wonderful memories of you Aunt Nell. I spent several hours today looking for a picture that I have of you on the camel! I will find it and when I do I am going to share it on here. I love you and I will see you someday.

Patricia Wilmoth - March 29, 2013 at 02:10 PM

SW

“ Nell was always such a pleasure to be around. When you went to her home she always made you feel "at home." Such a sweet, generous lady that was very much loved.

Sandra (Perry) Weaver - March 29, 2013 at 02:10 PM