

Margie Faye Bonds

September 13, 1950 - April 16, 2019

On Tuesday, April 16, 2019, Margie Faye Bonds, loving wife, mother and grandma, passed away at the age of 68.

Margie was born on September 13, 1950 in Fairbury, IL to Charles and Zella Page. She received her bachelor degree from Harding University in 1974 and devoted thirty five years to education in the Bald Knob School District before retiring in 2009. On November 28, 1970, she married Carl Wayne Bonds. Together they raised two children, Nikki Mitsunaga (Mike) and Wayne Bonds Jr (Krystal).

Margie had a passion for hunting and taking care of others. She also adored her grandchildren. She could often be found at the gym, the ball fields, in the deer stands or anywhere her grandkids were. She was known for her genuine smile, and her kind and compassionate spirit.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents. Those left to cherish her memory: her husband and children, four grandchildren Gavin, Taryn, Trey and Lydia, a brother Richard, numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

“Margie and I began our teaching career at Bald Knob together. I have many happy memories of our time together. I was honored to be both Nikki and Wayne’s teacher. A special friend and coworker. May God bless her family with peace and the comfort of happy memories.”

Margie was one of the kindest people I’ve known. I was privileged to work with her at Bald Knob Middle School and found her to be a caring and dedicated teacher. Nikki and Wayne, you we’re both good, solid, genuinely pleasant students to be around. My heart hurts for you all but know that we’re praying for peace and comfort as you face the coming days.

Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Wallace-Wayne and I loved our experience at Bald Knob (so much so I am teaching middle school math there now). You were both so kind and have always loved us. Thank you for your sweet words remembering our beautiful mom.
