

Margie Mae (Grayson) Freppon

February 20, 1926 - January 9, 2017

Margie Mae Grayson Freppon born on Feb. 20, 1926, died on January 9, 2017. Margie was born on the White river at Augusta. She is preceded in death by her husband Melvin Freppon, grandchild Amy Freppon, great-grandson, Malachi Grayson Freppn; parents James Stacy Grayson and Eva Templeton Grayson Brown, brother J.E. Grayson, brother Guy Brown and sister Myrtle Wallace. Margie is survived by son Stacy Freppon (Vicki) of Stillwater, Oklahoma, Michael Freppon (Betty) of Bald Knob, Ar and daughter Marlene Stracner (Ronnie) of Augusta, Ar, sisters Helen Keeling of North Little Rock, Ar and Eula Mae Brown of Jacksonville, Ar. She has 7 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren. Margie is a catholic and attended St. Richard Catholic Church at Bald Knob where she was a member of the Altar Society.

Margie will always be remembered as a loving, caring, respectful southern Lady. She owned and operated Margie's daycare of Bald Knob and Augusta, from 1967-1980. There are so many children that she loved, rocked and cared for during those years, not to mention having a large staff to manage with it. Margie will always be remembered as "Mrs. Margie, by so many.

She also helped manage the family farm operations and also in later years owned and operated Mel-Mart of Augusta.

Margie surrounded herself with beauty. Her home and gardens reflected that. She was also a talented seamstress, artist and woodcarver. She loved nature, animals and had many pets. We all learned lessons on how to live our lives to the fullest from her gentle spirit. Margie always shared her smile with everyone.

The family request that love gifts be sent to the St. Richard Altar Society % St. James Catholic Church
PO Box 172 Searcy, Ar 72143.
