“ She was a wonderful adopted Grandma who opened her heart and loved us all when she took on this big family! So glad she made us all a part of her life--even those of us living in the Northwest! So glad to hear Grandma Margie went so peacefully. So sorry we won't be able to make the trip for her services. Everyone give each other a hug from us. Love you all and we do miss her so much! Love -

“ It's very hard to lose a loved one, especially one who was so good. Rest assured that she is now resting, resting in peace. John 5:28, 29 says that all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected back to life. What a grand hope we have to be there and see our loved ones come back to life. Please visit J W . “ Please receive my condolences sincerely. Losing a love one is the most devastating thing that can happen to us. However, knowing what the Bible says about the future of the dead will bring us relief. John 5:25 says in part "...when the dead will hear the voice of the son of God, and those who have paid attention will live". May God bless you!

“ I'm really sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 tells there will be a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death and will have the opportunity to live forever in a perfect world. I hope this brings your family comfort during this tough time.

“ Hi my name is Bren and I am sorry for your loss. I have a message that gave me joy when a loved one of mine died and I hope it does the same for you. What is the good news about the dead? When Jesus arrived at Bethany near Jerusalem, his friend Lazarus had been dead for four days. Jesus went to the burial place with Martha and Mary, sisters of the deceased man. Soon, a crowd gathered. Can you imagine the joy of Martha and Mary when Jesus raised Lazarus back to life? Does this not bring us joy. If you would like more info visit jw.org.
