“ To Diane, Drew, Kay and the rest of the family, Kathy and I wish to express our sadness to hear of your mother's passing. we loved her dearly and you all have been in our thoughts so often over the years. What a great lady she was and she will be missed. I recently went to Hamburg and took photos of the family home and it brought back many memories. Love to all and again so sorry.

“ The very first neighbor to welcome me to my new home was Levi, with Marjorie right behind him. She was a bright and gracious lady, impeccably groomed without fail and always exhibiting warmth and cheer. When he crossed Rainbow Bridge she was devastated but she kept her chin up. Marjorie was kind and perhaps one of her most memorable traits was an ability to sense and respond to a person's inner need. Her spirit is well kept.
