“ Mary was a salt of the earth person whose friendship was a mineral which enhanced the flavor of life. Our friendship began in 1975 around our daughters who were elementary school class mates and deepened through the years as our husbands became fast friends sharing a love of music in a group of local musicians. Mary was a loyal supportive wife, a gracious host, a source of wisdom from a lifetime of overcoming challenges, and a woman of faith. She supported strangers experiencing oppression, hunger, disease, and cultural challenges with generous donations to many charities. She loved her church family as an extension of her birth family. I witnessed her generosity to both in action. She loved traveling, Broadway plays, shopping and shoes as well as the simple joy of long talks over coffee in her warm, inviting home. She was no stranger to candor. Through the years we grieved together and leaned into our friendship for support in hard times. She carried herself with dignity and held her problems private; I was humbled at her allowing me into the reality of her feelings and life experience. It was easy to trust her with my own. In our friendship, I was the follower until September 27, 2018 when Marys foundation was shaken by a seismic shift in her personal life and she called on me to lead. Her family, her friends, this earth has lost something most precious with her passing. My condolences to all. Marcheta Goodin

“ Mary was my husband's (Stan) cousin. She visited with us in FL along with her Aunt Emogene and igene. I know she and Emogene went on many trips together. My prayers and love to her family. God has another angel. May she rest I. Peace. Her earthly trials are over. Dementia is a horrible disease (husband Stan died of this also).

“ What a precious Aunt! She always made summers fun for us kids and we shared many good times with her and the Arkansas cousins and family back and forth from Nanny and Papaw's to her house. She would pick us up in Virginia and take us to Opryland or somewhere fun, then take us back to stay at her house for a couple of weeks until Mom and Dad would come pick us up. She was always buying us jeans and clothes and baked the best snacks (chocolate chess cake and pies). It's true, she got her cooking talents from Nanny. She came to Virginia whenever she could be there for graduations, weddings and such and was always thinking about others and how they were, even if times might be tough for her. She had a great faith and was a strong woman and showed me I could be strong even in tough times. Many, many sweet memories and love she has left us all! I will miss her so much! She will always be close to my heart. Prayers for Lechelle, Vicky, Tim, Coleton, Dad, Uncle Jerry, Aunt Nell and all the family. Love to all!
