“ So sorry to hear about Mary Lynn.
Several of us enjoyed visiting with her on the computer. We had planned to get together when she came for a visit to Newport. She worked so hard on the Class of 1971's information for the school website and one for our class to get together for chats. She sure could chat! We sure will miss her.
I'm sorry I can't make it to the service. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Lynn, Christine, and George,
My heart goes out to you. I was so sorry to read about Mary Lynn. I remember all the good times that Mary Lynn, Teresa and I had at your house. I even remember watching the Ed Sullivan show sitting in your living room floor when the Beatles made their debut. You were such wonderful parents and I know she loved you very much. Please be strong and know that Mary Lynn is in a better place and will be waiting on you to join her someday.

“ George and Mr. & Mrs. Pinkett, my heart goes out to you all. Mary Lynn was such a rare individual - don't know where she got all her courage; but it speaks well of her parents and husband, in my opinion. She had such a strong character, like a magnet, she would draw you in ... sometimes slowly and sometimes with the speed of a bullet! She was my "little" sister and I will miss her email thoughts and comments. Her writings were the pathway to her soul and she always kept the avenue paved for your easy access - she even provided handicapped parking!. I loved her as a sister and will miss her greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Dear Christine and Lynn:

Saddened me deeply to hear about your daughter realizing how difficult it will be for you but I do know this, God, through the Holy Spirit, His Word, prayer, will comfort and go through it with you and like the picture of only two tracks in the sand, He will even carry you. Not likely I will get to the Memorial Services but you can know I will be thinking of and praying for you.

“ *christine and Lynn,
Mary Lynn and I were the skinnies girls in Newport High, and I remember how we called and wrote each other because the big surgery we had was just days apart. I am sure she had to have many more. Remember we were both so yellowish in color but we had these great personalities!!!! No one could ever keep us down. The picture depict her as being as beautiful on the outside as she was on the inside. I treasure the friendship we shared and the common denominator as well.
Love to you both. Even though I lost my daughter at a young age, I went thru losing my husband in 2007-I have started a new like. So has Mary Lynn!!! She is with our Lord and she doesn't hurt anymore or feel tired. She is in a far better place.
