“ Even though Aunt Katherine remarried over the years, I have always still considered her my aunt. I know right now it's hard to say good-bye but to be reassured that she is up in heaven with so many special angels and I know that one of those angels is my momma. I will always remember momma and Aunt Katherine at the table gossiping along with another special angel Aunt Claris, in the kitchen, after cooking, for all of us kids. Good memories and good times. She is in good hands now....Love you Aunt Katherine..until we meet again...
