“ I used to share I had several mothers not just one. Granted I was the only one in the troop, whose mother wasn't a leader in one way or another. Any time I needed a parental signature, your mom or Vickie or Mary Watson would hand it to me and say, "Here sign this. Your mom won't mind. She trusts us." And how they were so right. As long as I was with them, I was good.

But of all the campouts, trips, camps, we took I remember the one to Branson and Pea Ridge the most. We had just come from a show in Branson and the pool was locked but we weren't tired. I think it was your Mother's idea to climb over the locked fence and sit around the pool. Us, girls were afraid of getting in trouble while she climbed over the fence and let us inside. I had so much fun that trip. She is missed here from me and both my parents.

“ I remember when you lived on Indian Trail Rebecca, that Kaylee and Connor would spend time at your house and your mom was there watching them. They always said they had a great time when she was there and how cool she was. She was always pleasant to talk to and I loved being around her. I love both of you Rebecca and Khristi and your families.
