“ Sending our love to the family of Mrs. Mary. We met her and Mr. Jewel at the Judsonia church around 2015. One of my favorite stories she told me was about her getting married (family, please forgive me if I miss a few details). We were sitting in the fellowship building at Judsonia church of Christ, which is the "old" church building. She said she got married in that building when she was still in high school. She said her daddy decided he would let her get married while she was in high school, if they promised she would finish school. She did finish high school, but was kicked off of the spirit team she was on since she was a married woman! Decades later, I agreed that just wasn't fair! But I'm certain that being married to her sweetheart was well worth it :)

Prayers for comfort for her extensive family and friends.

“ Sorry to hear of yalls loss. My dad James Green loved Mary.....he complained of having to clean her pool for her every year....but I promise it was a labor of love. I remember the love your family gave us upon his accident and passing of my dad. I will pray for peace for your family.

“ We were sad to hear of Mary’s passing. As a child my family moved from Arkansas to Michigan but Arkansas never left us. We vacationed in Arkansas nearly every summer. I remember when it was about 15 that Jewel decided i should learn to drink coffee. After dinner Jewel and Mary took me to a drive-in and ordered coffee for me. I put enough cream and sugar in it to get it down. I told Jewel that if he didn’t marry Mary soon I was going to marry her. We all had a good laugh! After moving to Arizona Mary and Jewel visited us and we were able to visit them in Arkansas and stay on the farm which we very much enjoyed. We are going to miss Mary’s eternally happy disposition and her Christmas letters which kept us informed about her family - her joy.
