“ I was the first person Sue met when she moved here. Her and I have been through it all together no matter what . And been the best of friends but as all best friend do at time we did disagree but we held our ground and never let anything stand between us. SUE please hug stash for me tell him I miss him still and you two BEHAVE. I love and will miss you both beyond anyone's comparisons . Forever my friend, my sister my family and forever with me.
