“ My heart aches for your loss. Even though I was not blessed to have Matthew in my classroom, i often visited his third grade class and was welcomed by his bright smile and positive attitude. He will be missed by all that knew him.
Your family will be in my prayers as you face the days ahead. I pray for stength and healing.

“ We do not know each other, but I read about your son today in the paper and felt compelled to contact you. I lost my 13 year old son on July 4, 2010 in an atv accident; therefore, I know exactly what you are going thru and will continue to go thru. To say my heart is broken for you would be an understatement. I'm so very, very sorry for the loss of your son and will have you in my prayers constantly. If you would ever like to talk to me you can give me your email address and I will give you my number. So, so sorry!

“ Jess, I just heard the news about your son. I realize we haven't seen each other in 30+ years but I still remember you and Willie when you lived on the farm with us. We couldn't have been much older. Those were some happy days for me. It breaks my heart that you and your family have to experience this tragedy. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Matthew sounds like he was a pretty spectacular kid. Much love, - Kimberly

“ I use to live in Chapelridge Apts and I use to play outside with the kids alot and Matthew would always come up and talk to me. He was a very sweet young man and it was a pleasure to have known him. He had a way of making you feel special and important like the way he use to come running up and say my name "Hey Mr. Scott". I am deeply sorry for your loss but I know that God will help you through sincerely yours, Scott.
