“ To the family just wanted share my memory of Mr Donald when Mildred worked as my special assistance at Crain Automotive. He was such a gentleman I'll always remember that special smile he had each time he came by to visit. Time as gotten away from us and I will miss Mrs Donald and what she meant to me and the Crain Family as well as Mr Donald's visits. Larry Crain. I

“ I have to admit, I am a bit jealous. This wonderful man is finally in Heaven. Reunited with his mother and wonderful wife. What a fabulous reunion it must be. Mr D was a second Father to me. I will miss our talks and hugs. See you later, dear friend.

Sorry we won't be at the memorial service. What a sweet man he was. He and Aunt Mildred were both the sweetest. They were always so kind to me. I loved hearing tell stories of old times. I know he and Pawpaw Donald are catching up. Love and prayers to you during this time of sorrow.

“ This kind of loss is so difficult, especially from the loss of such a great man. I knew him through his granddaughter, Sandra, who sang his praises often. I am so sorry for such a difficult time and loss. I love each of you and will continue to pray for you.
