“ I just learned about the passing of "Max" as we always called her. She was one of hte pillars of my childhood and (I know) a dear friend to both of my parents. I will always remember her smile and her cherry "hello" each time I was able to see her. I guess too that she was the last of a group of friends that were so often together in their young adult hood - my parents (Earl and Bernice Humphries), Neal and Yolanda Humphries, Juanita and Carl Pinegar, RB and LA Hathcock and Cornelius and Ruth (whose last name escapes me.) They often gathered for meals and family fun nights that are part of my earliest memories. Some of them had been friends and neighbors as children. I know too the power and blessing of her prayers as she and Ervine cane and prayed with my Dad after his final surgery, I am sure they are all rejoicing together in the bond of love and faith that last for eternity. She will not be forgotten. I wish I could have been at the memorial service. May God bless all of you who were privileged to have her as family.
