“ Melissa will be missed by me and Beth Dix. We would go by her house and talk to her for hours. We always talk to her at her work. She was always happy go lucky and that will be missed also. She rally was a sweet woman. Sorry for her family's lost.

“ Melissa will be missed by so many. I am thankful for all the help she gave me while being trained at Lowes. Melissa was always willing to help everyone. I am so sad that she has had to leave all of us here on earth. She will be remembered not by just me but the Lowes family and my family. May you rest in peace Melissa. Forever in our hearts.

“ I remember waiting and watching for Melissa, David, and Sandy to run up through the field behind our house on Division Street every Thanksgiving when we were little. Uncle Tom and Aunt Mary Ann wouldn't be far behind in the car. That was the signal that the holiday had begun. So many special memories that I will always hold dear. We will miss you, Melissa. Heaven has another angel.
