“ Melissa had a big heart and was always caring. She was so proud of Cathy and her family, especially those grandkids. She would always brag on Cathy and her family when I would see her. Melissa was very special to so many people and she touched so many lives. She will be missed very much. She was always worried about others more then herself and she always wanted to help. My thoughts and prayers are with her family as she was defiantly an angel to us all. Love you Melissa. Thoughts and prayers are with your family in this sad time.

“ To the family of Melissa Crain Toomer,

I am so sorry to hear of Melissa's passing. I have been neighbors with Melissa for the past 17 years, she was one of the sweetest and kindest people you will ever meet and I have never seen her when she didn't have a smile on her face. Melissa will be missed by all who were privileged to have known her. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all!
