“*Mary and Aunt Brenda,
We are so sorry we could not make it to Arkansas to be with you in this tragic time. Michael was a very honorable man. He loved Mary fully, and I was so happy for them. I always thought of Michael when I heard this song by Brad Paisley on the radio, "He Didn't have to be."*

*"And lookin' back all I can say about all the things he did for me
Is I hope I'm at least half the Dad that he didn't have to be Yeah, I hope I'm at least half the Dad that he didn't have to be Because he didn't have to be, you know he didn't have to be."*

*He lives on through all of you, and your love for him.

“ Michael was my cousin. Earl Myers and my mother, Carleen Kidd, were brother and sister. Although I haven't spoken to Micheal in years, he was a great man. Like his father, he walked with great pride where ever he went. He was well liked by his entire myers clan up in Michigan. To his wife and family, along with aunt Brenda (his mother) in Arkansas, I ask God and the lord Jesus Christ to give you peace in your hearts and a loving spirit to carry you through these difficult times. Through him all things are possible!
