“ Mike was my brother I had not seen him for a while. I did not meet him till I was 23 and we were good friends. One happy memory of our life that we laughed about that we were painting together one time he got his bunch of turpentine on his rear end and had to take his pants on and going to the people's house and wash his bottom. That's celebrating his life and the fun we had we laughed about that many many times even though it was not funny at that time. He raised four boys. I'm sure they will all be there since they loved him so so much. He had a wonderful ex-wife who was very very good to him. I hope that you're celebration of his life goes very very well. We pretty far down here and cannot make it up there. I would love to see everyone but we just can't come we're working too hard. I wish she were able to meet both of my children. He only knew my daughter. God bless every one of you. Brad Rayl and Daniel David Rayl Cruz nephew
