“ *Tommy and Christie
My memory of Colin was the day he came to my house. I had just took out a pan of hot rolls. He looked at me and said I'm hungry. I said you sit right here and I'll get the jelly and you eat all you can hold and he did. He was to eat at grandma Jackie's house that night and he told her he had already eaten up the road. You both take care and always remember those little things he did to make you happy. lday*

“ Ms Yes:

There are no words. If understanding your pain without actually experiencing it helps just a little, please know that I understand. If prayers help (and I believe with all my heart that they do), please know that I am praying for you and your family. If knowing that people care about you helps, know that I care about you and that I am available to listen to you and/or to talk with you anytime.

Regards,

James T.

Addendum: Ms Thompson sends her condolences.

“ WE LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU! WE KNOW YOU ARE SPENDING CHRISTMAS WITH JESUS!

Christmas In Heaven

*I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below
With tiny lights, like Heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow*

*The sight is so spectacular,
please wipe away the tear
For I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.*

*I hear the many Christmas songs
that people hold so dear
But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here.*

*I have no words to tell you,
the joy their voices bring,
For it is beyond description,
to hear the angels sing.*

*I know how much you miss me,
I see the pain inside your heart.
But I am not so far away,
We really aren't apart.*

*So be happy for me, dear ones,
You know I hold you dear.
And be glad I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.*

*I sent you each a special gift,
from my heavenly home above.
I sent you each a memory
of my undying love.*

*After all, love is a gift more precious than pure gold.
It was always most important in the stories Jesus told.*

*Please love and keep each other,
as my Father said to do.
For I can't count the blessing or love
He has for each of you.*

*So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear.
Remember, I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.*

I find it so difficult to find the words that even begin to tell you how sorry I am about the loss of your precious son. What a joy and blessing Colin was to all who knew him. My entire family would like to extend our heart felt condolences and let you know how sad and heart broken we are that you & your family are having to deal with this horrible tragedy. Little Colin made a mega impact on this world in his short 5 years of life. He leaves behind memories that will never be forgotten. “ Colin was a shining light, a ball of fire! He was full of life! A lover of hunting, fishing, baseball, feeding the pigs, and he loved his parents dearly.

1 Cor. 1:3-5 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comforts us in all our affliction so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For just as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ."

Colin was loved by all who knew him and now by many who didn't and will be missed by all. We love you Colin and we love his parents. May God give you the comfort that need and the peace that you deserve. Love Robin

“ I had the privilege of meeting and being around Collin at Bible School. Being around him so impressed me that I told several people about what a cute, sweet little boy he was. He was the kind of child that you could not forget. May God grant each of the members of his family comfort in knowing what a profound effect Collin had on everyone he met.

“ Dear Tommy and Christie,

I had the pleasure of knowing Colin last year, before I retired. Colin was such a pleasant little one. I don't believe he ever met a stranger. He had such an outgoing personality. I join with many, many other friends, and members of the community in prayer for your strength during this very dark time in your life.

THANK YOU FOR GIVING ME AN OPPORTUNITY TO MEET A VERY UNIQUE AND SPECIAL LITTLE ONE. My prayers are with you.
