“ Dear Patti, It was with great sadness that I found out that Mike had passed on. We haven't seen each other since he left Shreveport LA, but through FB we continued our friendship. He was always there to help out when I needed him. I remember being single and leading a Girls in Action group. I needed a driver to take them places and Michael volunteered to help me out. We spent many days walking together and discussing politics and world problems . Even on FB we continued these conversations . He held a special place in my heart and I will dearly miss him.

“ Dear Patti, you and I have never met and in fact I had not seen Mike in person for a very long time, although we reconnected on Facebook several years ago. Mike was an old friend from First Baptist Shreveport singles class days, and I am very grateful that social media provided an avenue to renew our friendship. To call Mike generous is to greatly understate the case; to call him kind is the same. Mike was the very soul of generosity and kindness, Jesus with skin on in this world. Mike generously supported a few initiatives of tremendous personal importance to me, and I'm confident that he was equally generous towards other causes that I never heard about.

Mike spoke very highly of you and was obviously a devoted brother. I cannot imagine the depth of your loss. You and all others who are feeling the grief of Mike's absence will be in my prayers.

“ From a co-worker, Mike was recognized for his elongated “Uhhh Huhhh” replies rather than yes. Condolences to the family. David Milford
