“ My sincere condolences to the family during this time of sorrow. Much comfort can come from fond memories of your love one. Hope can be found in God's word promising a future filled with all good things. John 5:28, 29 the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. Look forward to the time when we will see our loved ones again in paradise. This will give you strength to endure until God's promise is fulfilled. May you gain strength from compassion shown, and endurance from the shower of love as you face with courage the days ahead.
