“ Joe, Gina and Tonya...Thank you for sharing your momma with me. I've never felt like "just an in-law" to her or any of you and for that I am forever thankful! Prov. 31:28 Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also and he praises her.

“ I was saddened to learn of Mona's passing. She will always be a special person to me since I got to know her when she was church secretary at the Arlington Church of Christ. I especially appreciated her kindness and intellect as she advised me about arrangements for my wedding at the church. My deepest sympathies to Tonya and Joel and the entire family.

“ I will always remember Mona with warmth and fondness. Jerry and I enjoyed having her as a neighbor and we spent some very pleasurable times visiting in her home with her and her mom. She always had a warm smile for us and I will miss her very much. She was a good neighbor and a good friend. My deepest sympathy to the family.
