“ Sweet, Sweet Myrna. We are so glad Myrna and Jerry was able to come to our family picnic in Sept. She was so happy showing off her family photos, she was so proud of her family. I have known Myrna since she was very small, don't remember a time I didn't know Myrna. Her sister Joyce was my best friend in high school and now she and Myrna can be together in heaven with the rest of their loved one. Her mom and dad was like a second mom and dad to me. We will miss her dearly. Jane(Hodges) and Bill Erwin

“ My wonderful friend Myrna; you were without a doubt the best friend anyone could have. You gave me courage, strength, and support during a time when I needed it so much.....I will always remember our kids playing together, and the times you and I spent together over coffee and pie in your kitchen. I love you my friend.....Today I opened an a photo album; something fell from it; when I picked it up, it was a picture of you. How special is that?? Very special; just like you.
