

Myrtle Louise Wallace

January 5, 1933 - July 14, 2016

Myrtle Grayson Wallace left her earthly home to be with her Lord and Savior on July 14, 2016. She was 83 years young because she was always claiming “she wasn’t old!!” She arrived into this world on January 5, 1933 on the banks of the White River at Augusta, Arkansas. She was the daughter of the late James E. Grayson and Eva Templeton Grayson Brown. She was married to Dale Wallace for 54 years before his death in 2007. She was a charter member of the Baptist Tabernacle Church in Searcy where she faithfully served as a Sunday school teacher of young children. Before her death, she attended Park Avenue Baptist Church in Searcy.

You could usually find Dale and Myrtle side by side together on their farm. They enjoyed riding the four wheeler, checking the crops and watching the wildlife. Myrtle was always busy taking care of her family, picking up and picking out pecans, and making possum grape jelly to give away to family and friends. She was an excellent southern cook! Her pumpkin and pecan pies were coveted by many.

She is survived by her son, Randy Wallace (Cindy); daughters, Joy Looney (Gary) and Judy Burns (David); her grandchildren whom she loved dearly; three sisters, Margie Freppon, Helen Keeling and Eula Mae Brown. She will be greatly missed by a host of nieces and nephews and friends. Her sweet sunny smile and love will linger on in our hearts forever!

“ Miss Myrtle was always a gracious and generous hostess. I rarely ate fish before I met her, but I never turned down a chance to eat hers, “ Joy, Judy ,and Randy. I'm saddened by hearing of Aunt Myrtel's passing. I heard this last night while in Oklahoma and could not attend her service. Myrtel is a special person and was loved by all that knew her. I have loved and respected Dale and Myrtle my whole life and admired their way of life. We all will miss her and her smiles, but we all should be happy for her to be with Uncle Dale again. My thoughts and prayers go to you and your family.

“ I am so, so sorry for your loss. As you may know, I just lost my sister, and I certainly feel the loss you are going through. It hurts so bad to face each day without someone that you have loved every day of your life. The only thing that makes each moment possible is the memories you have. Just cherish them. She was a very sweet lady. I will try to come, but I am not sure if I can emotionally handle it. I'm sorry for being so weak.
