“ Heaven is definitely getting sweeter. The Goad family is very special to the Bowman family. My love and prayers to you all. There are many loved ones and special friends to greet her. Deanie had a way of making you feel like family. She was an amazing cook. I will never forget the support she gave my mom and dad. She always had my love, admiration, and respect. She was a special part of a very special family. May God give you all peace and comfort.
