“ nancy was the most giving person i ever met.she was always the first to volunteer to help someone,raise money for a cause,and donate her time and care and anything she had to help!...she was a fiesty lil firecracker who was full of life and i just loved to hear her stories ..there was not a single time that i was around nancy that she did not make me laugh...i couldn't help but giggle during her stories and i will miss that so much and her smiling face asking me...."how ya been doin miss chas"....and then start in on some wild story that had been goin on that day...i just loved it!...you know she was an inspiration as well, i mean not only did she do so much for so many,she was such a hard worker!!! she worked so many hours for walmart and she would say "i dont need no time off, naw not me...im tough i can do it"...she just would shock me how much of a hard worker she was and she didnt just clock in and out at her job, she took pride in her work and always gave 100%..plus she was a fire fighter volunteer for decades...just an all around hard working dedicated, loving , giving person with the biggest heart and i will miss her truely and dearly.....love you G MAW NANCY!
