“ I only learned today of Nancy's death. My prayers are with Cynthia and the rest of Nancy's family during this difficult time. I worked as a reporter and editor at the Danville Register & Bee when Nancy was employed there. Nancy was like a second mother to me. I will remember her as one who was always so full of life and laughter. After she retired, I lost contact with her for many years, but I was fortunate to cross paths with her recently at a restaurant in Danville. She invited my wife, Susan, and I to join her and her friends. Happily, I discovered she was the same Nancy that I had known when at the Register & Bee. She was a special person. I will never forget her.

“ Nancy Carol was my favorite cousin, I enjoyed stopping by and spending the night, we would set half the night yaking. She was always full of herself as she was when we were kids I will miss her dearly as I know others will also. We will meet again Nancy
