“ Neil was choir director at Highland Park Baptist in Southfield, MI. from 1970-1976. I was privileged to be his pianist. organist at that time a he amazed us all by inceasing the choir form 40 to 100 for all six years and getting us all the perform the hardest four part music ever written. He was the greatest! And we all loved him.

“ Reva - My heart goes out to you and yours at this sad time. I will miss the days seeing Neil and his brother-in-law, Ed, taking playful digs at each other when breaking bread at the local fish house. Neil had a great sense of humor which he delivered effortlessly in a patient, well timed way. He always made me smile.

“ Dear Lynn and family,

When I first went to Highland Park Baptist Church in Southfield, Neil was the choir director and as a fairly recent music school graduate, I was impressed by the quality of music Neil was having the choir sing. It was Neil's music and the excellent preaching of Dr. Slavin, which drew me to stay at HPBC and thereby understand the Gospel message more fully. I extend my sincere sympathy to you and your family.

*Sincerely,
Gail Mitchell*
