“ When my daughter was having a terrible time with her car, going to college. Nick done everything he could and put a whole lot of time to helping her. A lady he didn't know. Yet he gave all that time for a stranger. Since that time we have to say we called him friend. He was so so helpful he would always go to his business. He and Jimmy always acted like we were old friend. Nick was a blessing in our life and is truly going to be missed.
