“ Aunt Nina was an amazing lady. There was something special about the King family as her sister Eva, our grandmother, was with us until she was 97. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this most difficult of times.

“ My condolences, prayers, and thoughts go out to the family of Nina King Mauck, especially her sons whom I knew from Main Street United Methodist Church and HCHS. I am especially thankful to Jerry Mauck for making it possible for me to wish Nina a Happy Birthday on her 100th.

“ Aunt Nina had the best attitude and a great sense of humor, which I personally believe was a big part of the reason she lived so long. She was a jokester as long as I can remember, and was still pulling them on me at age 100! She didn't let life happen 'to' her; she took up watching golf at the age of 96 or 97, looking for something new to liven things up a bit. She made me laugh, and I loved her dearly.
