“ Norman you were one of my favorite cousins. They say some of our best friends were our cousins when we were growing up, and if that's so, Norman you were one for sure. Someone you could talk to, call on in time of need would have been the brother I never had. I love you Norman and you will be missed.

“ Norman was always good to me he always knew how to lift your Spirits and make you smile or laugh 😊 I know he loved his wife more than anything and always done his best for her.

I remember a lot of goods stories he told..When they lived Sarah Oklahoma for awhile we went to visit he told me the story about coming home from the Army went to bathroom when bus made a stop and was robbed of his money..while in the bathroom,He just laughed and said but they didn't get all of it though I said they didn't he laughed and said no I hid some in my sock they didn't get that and just chuckle with laughter...Even finding good out of a bad situation..I think Norman is one of the happiest people I've ever seen or knew I know he is..Just good old down to earth happy Guy!!!! I will remember him this way

Norman would give you the shirt off of his back if thought you needed it. Him and Laverra welcomed me into the family. Thinking back I can't recall one single thing wrong he ever done to me. I know he's talked me out of doing something dumb before. And I would walk away usually laughing. I Love you Norman you definitely are one of the great one's
