“ Elizabeth and family, I just wanted to let you know what an honor and privilege it was for me to spend the last 9 months with Miss Oakley.. She and I spent so any hours talking of her life and childhood as well as her years as a teacher, wife and mother. She was such a warm and loving person who gave so very much of herself to everyone she came in contact with. She was bright and funny and so full of life.. even as she became less and less able to venture outside we still went to oh so many places in our imaginations..

we danced in pretty party dresses and fancy shoes.. we went to places and did things we would never get to do.. all in our minds.. she was a wonderful story teller and I enjoyed entering into her stories and I even made up a few of my own.. On that last morning as the early morning darkness was peeking into day I sat and held her hand and I sang her songs and she smiled at me in the way that only she could.. It was my pleasure to spend that last early morning with her.. She will be missed as much as she was loved... God Bless you all and keep you in his loving hands..

“ Elizabeth,
I have so many memories of your mom that they would fill many many pages. All of them are fond ones. My first memory was when you had appendicitis as a young girl and my mom did Sunday school at your house so that everyone could visit you. I remember helping them on the farm. She has supported me in advice and prayers throughout all of my educational endeavors. I haven't seen her for many years but the memories are ever present. All the notes and letters that she sent my mom on a regular basis were very much appreciated. I loved your Mom very much. I look forward to seeing my favorite angel again in heaven

“ You know your mom will be missed. I am so glad that I was able to be a part of her life and death. There so many things I could say like I learned something new every day I was there ,even in her 90s she was still a teacher. I will miss her laugh,her smile ,her love of books,telling stories,being outside talking about the trees and flowers and her excitement over a Frosty. I will miss her so much but she will always have a special place in my heart. I love yall and I will always be here if u need me.
