“ My sincere condolences to the family. Oydee, who I know better as Nanny, was one of the kindest, friendliest, most loving person you would ever meet. Out of all of the years I had seen her weekly, getting her hair styled by her granddaughter Jessica, I never remember a single time that she wasn't laughing, smiling, hugging, and being encouraging to everyone she came in contact with and everyone loved seeing her. She was a true example of what a positive, happy, uplifting person carries herself like. She will be greatly missed. With love from Falon
