

Pamela Jean Wadley

March 15, 1953 - June 12, 2025

Pamela Jean Wadley, 72 of Bald Knob, Arkansas, went to Heaven on Thursday, June 12, 2025, to join her husband and daughter. She was born in Plainwell, Michigan on March 15, 1953, to Bernard Theodore and Marjorie Ann (Davis) Campbell.

Those left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Armena and husband, Michael Smith Sr. of Bradford; her grandchildren, Michael Smith Jr. and wife, Destiny of Bradford, Danielle Cates and husband, Chad of Bald Knob; great grandchildren, Prairie Smith, Bo Cates, Prim Smith, Annie Cates, and Walker Cates; her siblings, Rick Campbell (Jan), Debbie Merchant, Penny Saline, and Scott Campbell. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Those who greeted her into Heaven are her parents; her husband, Carl Wadley and their daughter, Tina Wadley.

Pam was a loving and faithful wife to Carl until his passing. She loved spending time with him, helping with his trucking business. Keeping things running and the books straight were her job. She cared for their disabled daughter, Tina until she joined Carl into heaven on August 9, 2021. Her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were her joy, hope and passion. Pam made an impact on everyone with her smile and the way she cared for her family, she will be missed.

Arrangements were entrusted to Powell Funeral Home of Bradford.

Tribute Wall

“ Tammy Thacker lit a candle in memory of Pamela Jean Wadley ”

Tammy Thacker - June 18, 2025 at 02:55 PM