“ Dear Family of Mrs. Carter, In the years of knowing Mrs. Carter, I was always impressed with her kind and gracious personality. It will be difficult to think of her as gone when you carry so many fond memories of her. We need only close our eyes and we can see her warm, friendly smile. We are told that Love gives more than death can take but losing a person who's loved very much is the hardest thing we have to face. Mrs. Carter enriched lives in a way time can never erase. So, we pray you dwell on the love and warm thoughts of all you shared with Mrs. Carter and may it bring you comfort and peace for the days ahead. May our Father bless you tenderly as you honor Mrs. Carter's life today. With love & sympathy, George & Wanda Stein

“ Dear Family of Mrs. Carter,
In the years of knowing Mrs. Carter, I was always impressed with her kind and gracious personality. It will be difficult to think of her as “gone” when you carry so many fond memories of her. We need only close our eyes and we can see her warm, friendly smile. We are told that “Love gives more than death can take” but losing a person who’s loved very much is the hardest thing we have to face. Mrs. Carter enriched lives in a way time can never erase. So, we pray you dwell on the love and warm thoughts of all you shared with Mrs. Carter and may it bring you comfort and peace for the days ahead. May our Father bless you tenderly as you honor Mrs. Carter’s life today.
