“ Travis and Brian, we are so sorry to hear of the passing of Pat. There are 26 years of memories that I have stored in my heart of her and the lasting memories. We were watching the Little's 50th wedding anniversary party not to long ago with Anthony and his family and it was so good to hear the past. She was always a gracious host. She was loved by many. Our prayers go out to you today and the days of the future. Hold on to the good memories. I will smile to think that Bradley now has Aunt Pat with him to watch over him for me till i come home. We love you.

“ May God be with all the family in this time of sadness and stress. Joyce and Rick Little are precious Christian people, and I'm sure Pat, being in this family, had the same radiant personality and love for God and the Church that they do.
