

Patsy Ann Lynch

September 25, 1943 - September 14, 2024

Patsy Ann King Lynch, born September 25, 1943, entered into her heavenly reward on Saturday, September 14, at her home. Patsy was the twelfth and final child of Tom and Bertha Landis King. Proceeded in death by her parents and 10 siblings. Survived by her sister Olevia Laxton of Denmark, AR, husband Joe Lynch of nearly 54 years, 2 daughters, Anita Brown of Judsonia, AR, and Joann Pope (Micheal) of Fort Worth, TX, 4 Grandchildren, Beverly Brown Linn (Jeff) of Hot Springs, AR, Les Brown of Springfield, MO, and Joshua and Marah Pope of Fort Worth, TX, and 5 Great Grandchildren. Patsy was a loving housewife and mother who loved to go to church, share Christ with others, and travel for special church services across America. She loved to shop until everyone else dropped. She was an excellent cook who loved get-togethers and to play uno even though she was color blind for blue and green. She loved to act silly and make everyone laugh, but more than anything else in the world, she loved being with her family.

Funeral services honoring the life of Mrs. Patsy Lynch will be conducted on Tuesday, September 17, 2024 at Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob, Arkansas with Daren Phillips officiating. Family and friends may visit from 1:00 p.m. until 2:00p.m. prior to services. Interment will be in Henderson Cemetery in Pangburn, Arkansas.

Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob - Judsonia.
