“ Today we are all gathered in Searcy, Arkansas to celebrate the life of Aunt Patsy Pryor. I am honored and humbled to be here with family and friends. A tireless servant, world traveler and a heart for others are just a few of the memories I treasure. She had a way of making everyone feel special - and she we will missed! Love you Aunt Patsy! Thank you for being an encouragement to me throughout my life. My heart aches for Uncle Bill, Amy, Bruce, Matthew and their spouses and children as they travel this road. It hurts.
