“ Say Hello to Jim for us Pat. You and Red are our best friends and you saw me through alot when I needed you most. Your Baby Girl sends love to you in Heaven. You are going to be missed so much, summers will be no more sitting around the table sharing your company and the awesome meals you prepared for us and got mad when I'd clean up after. The world is a slightly darker place without you here. Thanks for 25 years of memories, birthday parties and who can forget the best New Year's Eves with all of our friends...good times that will always be a treasure. Love you!
