“ I knew Paula when she was a teenager and all of life was ahead of her. My late husband, James Wheeler, and she were cousins. Paula’s twin brother, Paul Wayne Maples of Searcy, and my husband were like brothers. They teased Paula without mercy but loved her just the same. I remember how she loved to play golf and had such a golden tan. She was a sweet, fun loving girl and grew up to be an adventurous woman. Her family will miss her dearly but there’s another meeting place somewhere in heaven, Lord willing. We must make sure that the family circle is not broken. What a day that will be!
