“ We met Peggy through her marriage to Duane Cross. The couple married around the same time we wed. They brought a group over to "Shivaree" us after they had been visited with one of their own. We are so sorry for your loss and prayers go out to the entire family. May God bless you and keep you. Peggy will be missed by so many who knew and loved her.

“ Peggy was a part of our family for about 5 years. I don't know if she realized what she was getting in to marrying into such a large family. She was always so good to us, and never treated us like step-kids. We had several good conversations about God's faithfulness in answering our prayers. She will surely be missed, her kind words, her compassion, and hugs. Prayers for comfort for Randy and Wade and their families.
