

Priscilla Epperson

January 5, 1955 - March 2, 2007

Priscilla Ann Epperson, resident of Bradford, died Friday evening, March 2, 2007 at White River Medical Center in Batesville, after a long, courageous battle with breast cancer. She was 52 years of age.

Priscilla was born January 5, 1955 in Batesville, the daughter of Wilson and Juanita Kinney Barnett. She worked for the Bradford School District as a Custodian and Cafeteria worker.

She is survived by her husband, Hubert Dean Epperson of Bradford; a son, Jared Epperson of Bradford; her father, Wilson Barnett of Bald Knob; two sisters, Connie Barnett of Bald Knob and Paula Barber of Velvet Ridge. She was preceded in death by her mother, Juanita Barnett and a sister, Frances Nell Weeks.

Tribute Wall

“ Here it is almost a year, and I'm just now finding out about this wonderful person. She worked with my aunt Brenda, and served me many of meals. I am so sorry for your lose. God Bless and be with you.

March 16, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family. Our children, Keely and Jayce, came home after school and told us of the news. They dearly loved Mrs. Priscilla, and are very sad that she will not be at school. So very sorry for your loss. Ricky, Laura, Keely, & Jayce Burress

March 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ May God bless your family at this time of loss.
Dwight Sharp, Evening Shade. son of Spellman and Maudie Sharp.

March 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Hubert, our prayers are with you & Jared. May you find some comfort in knowing that Priscilla is not suffering anymore. Ray, Sissy, Jason & Jared Cook

March 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Hubert, We are on the road at this time and were saddened to hear about Priscilla. We are praying for strength for you & Jared. Junior, Brenda, & Amy Roberts.

March 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM