“ It is so sad when a man such as Mr. Quentin passes on, however He has run his race, and without any doubt to anybody that ever new him , He was a winner. Not many men or women leave this world that has left such positive impressions on so many. He was definitely a very devoted educator, a great friend, a great man. I have to say this. LOL. His only downfall was, He could only teach me just so much, but he tried. I will always be thankful for the things I learned from this man. We pray that God bless this man and the family and friends left behind. Jacky Louks

“ Mr. Pearce was truly a devoted educator, not all of his teachings were from the textbooks but all of it had meaning and life lessons. I truly did enjoy my time in his classroom. I also considered him a friend and i think he did me also. Johnny Hodges
