“ I was so sorry to hear about the death of your grandmother. I know this must be a very difficult time for all of you. I will be praying for all of you. "And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:7

“ My thoughts,prayers and all my love to all of you. Your Mom was a Mom to me also and I will always love her dearly and keep her in my heart. She was such a selfless person and always did for others before herself. We have so many good memories of her. The last time I saw her was on our vacation to Tennessee. All she wanted to do was go to Dollywood and she got her wish. I was glad I was there with her. She is in such a better place and once again reunited with her wonderful husband. May peace be with you at this time. I love you all and wish I could be there with you to put my arms around you. Love you Mom forever and always!!

“ My heart goes out to all of Rachel's children and grandchildren and those closest to her.

I got to know quite a bit about her in the past few years and one thing was clear from our first phone call....she DEEPLY loved her kids. She had a strong love for family.

I know, I, for one, am going to miss picking up the phone to talk to her, so I can only imagine how hard her loss must be to those closest to her.

She also spoke to me often about her love for Burl and just a couple of weeks ago reflected on her love for him and expressed how she still missed him.

As hard as her loss is, knowing she is with him now makes me smile a little. Knowing she is not hurting anymore brings some comfort. Knowing she gave what she could and left a trail of love makes me feel privileged to have known her and glad we were family.

She was a special person to me. Know that I will be thinking of all of those that loved her and feel her loss in the days and months ahead.

She is only away right now and a piece of her lives in each of you. Lean on one another to help get you through the times of grieving. May you soon find peace in God's love and in your treasured memories of Rachel.

My love to all of you, Kathie
